Meet Carole Clayton

Funeral Celebrant

Carole, of Precious Memories, is an Independent Funeral Celebrant and supports families throughout Worcester, South Shropshire and North Herefordshire.

Planning the Funeral Service all starts with a relaxed conversation and a chance to share your thoughts, memories and requests with Carole, an Independent Funeral Celebrant, who will be able to turn this series of conversations with you and (maybe) other family members, into a meaningful service that will reflect the life of your Loved One.

Everyone has a story to tell; for some it is a shorter story than for others though it is never less meaningful. We don't have to go through every chapter in the book, we can concentrate on the pages that mean the most to you.

What is a Funeral Celebrant?

As the name suggests, a celebrant leads a celebration. He/she conducts the funeral service with or without reference to religious traditions.

A Civil Celebrant creates and leads services shaped to suit the personal preferences of the deceased or their family.

They work hand in hand with your Funeral Director to celebrate the life of the person who has passed.

Ask your Funeral Director to contact me or come to me and I will talk with and liaise with your Funeral Director.

What can I do to help you make your Loved One's service unique?

As the last thing we can do for someone that we have loved, is plan their Funeral Service, we need to get it right, there is only one chance to do this for them.

There are no set rules to a funeral service but some of the options you could include are:

Music, popular, classical or a hymn. Readings, maybe a poem or a passage from a book or a few sentences spoken from the heart. Poems or bible passages. Photographs, Hymns, Tribute/Eulogy, Family tributes.

It doesn't matter that you don't have a script to follow, we will, between us, find the words, poems, music and personal touches that best portray the Life of your Loved One and make your service unique to you and your family.

As a Civil Celebrant I am able to include practically anything that you wish into a service.

Whether or not you have a religious belief we can make the service meaningful with or without hymns and prayers.

Whatever you decide, I will be there for you and your family throughout, to support, comfort and reassure you during this difficult time.
